The musical score is written for a single melodic line in treble clef, with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a common time signature (C). The melody is accompanied by a series of chords indicated by letters above the staff. The lyrics are written below the notes. The score consists of seven lines of music. The first line starts with a repeat sign. The second line has a fermata over the final note. The fourth line has a fermata over the final note. The fifth line starts with a first ending bracket. The sixth line ends with a repeat sign. The seventh line ends with a repeat sign.

A shoot grow - ing up from the root from the seed in the ground.

...a stem growing up from the shoot from the root from the seed in the ground.

...a flower growing out from the stem from the shoot from the root from the seed in the ground.

...a seed growing out from the flower from the stem from the shoot from the root from the seed in the ground.
